Dear Iona Families,

CATHOLIC EDUCATION WEEK
This week saw the launch of Catholic Education Week and it has been wonderful to reflect on the great contribution that Catholic Education has made within our Australian society.

From extremely humble beginnings where every resource was supported by families, we have created an education network that serves approximately 20% of all students in Australia. We are now in partnership with both the State and Federal Governments in delivering an education that is inclusive and respectful of diversity.

Our contribution to Australian society is deeply modelled on the love and vision of Jesus and being a ministry of the Catholic Church within Australia is an essential part of our identity. Every Catholic school welcomes and supports both Catholics and non-Catholics and all are fully respected within the community.

I am so incredibly pleased that Iona College enjoys a positive and respectful relationship with all of the schools within our region. We have profound respect for the work of Bayside State Secondary College, Wynnum High School, Moreton Bay Boys College and Moreton Bay College who serve our local region so well. We also have an incredibly respectful and close relationship with our local Catholic and State Primary Schools as well who teach our primary school children in an exemplary way.

We deeply value the trust that families have placed in Iona over many generations and remain committed to honouring that trust for generations to come.

OLYMPIC THEMED ASSEMBLY
It was great to welcome back Ashley Callus (Olympic Gold Medallist) and Daniel Fox (Paralympic Gold Medallist) to our Olympic Themed Assembly. Both Ionians were able to share the great sacrifices and achievements of their sporting and personal lives. They gave credit to their families and Iona for the environment that nurtured their aspirations.

Daniel is competing in Rio and we wish him all of the very best.

We were also honoured with the rare privilege of welcoming 15 torches from previous Olympics that our primary school students were able to hold. I believe the boys will hold this memory in a positive light.

I suggest that your sons consider the OBLATE MISSION ACTION DAY APPEAL

Last week’s newsletter included a letter of invitation to be involved in the College’s major fundraiser for people in significant need around the world, especially in Asia and Africa. I really do encourage you to read its contents and ask your son/s to do so as well. It would be great if you were able to have a family conversation around the need for generosity and an understanding of the causes of poverty. This link may help families in that conversation and I encourage every family to have a look. The Oblates value greatly the longstanding generosity of the Iona community and are extremely grateful for your support. Each family is asked to contribute at least $40 which will go a long way in ensuring that valuable resources and support reaches the families of people in most need.

Iona College seeks to provide a dynamic Catholic learning community within the Oblate spirit, so that its members are faith-filled, resilient, courageous, well-balanced and prepared to make a difference.
It is clearly obvious that the Iona community greatly values and supports the work of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. In order to celebrate this relationship, we are inviting everyone to St Stephen’s Cathedral on Monday, August 8 at 7.00pm. We have provided a bus option from the College, if that helps, and the link supplied here will help you access it. Please note that while it is free of charge, you must book your seat before 9.00am Wednesday, August 3 should you wish to catch the bus, from Iona to the Mass, and back. This ensures we can order the correct number of busses.

NATIONAL CENSUS ON AUGUST 9
Tuesday, August 9 is the date on which census information is collected. It is a wonderful opportunity to provide a snapshot of our society as it currently stands. When religion is asked, I really do encourage you to consider where you currently stand on this issue. It is not asking if you go to Mass every week or if you agree with every teaching of the Church or religion. The data collected here forms the basis for decisions around taxing, resourcing and other matters. I encourage you to think carefully about whether religion has a part in your life and to answer as honestly as you can.

In conclusion I offer a reflection on Morningside, a wonderful community that has had a connection with Iona for many generations. I enjoyed the research and discoveries very much and I hope you do as well. Next week will see us travel to Capalaba to discover its heritage and treasures.

INTRODUCING MORNINGSIDE – 4170
Located 5km from the city centre is the beautifully named Morningside. This suburb is among the oldest in Brisbane, having been established in 1872.

The inspiration for the name was apparently the sight of nearby hills catching the rising sun, or the locality being on the morn (eastern) side of Brisbane. It is one of the more beautiful suburban names in Brisbane.

Early industry in the area included sugar cane farming in the areas close to the river. Other farming pursuits at that time included tobacco, small crops and dairying.

The railway line constructed in 1888 to Cleveland played an important part in the development of the region with many people choosing to move into the recently opened areas. The station was originally called Bulimba Station but changed its name to Morningside soon afterwards.

A tannery (1876) was positioned beside some waterholes south of the railway line and continued there until 1900. A plague hospital (1900) and a stock quarantine facility were built. The area was named after Colmslie House (1881) near the corner of Thynne and Lyton Roads, built by Captain William Cairncross.

In the 1920s a school of arts (1926) and a picture theatre were opened around the railway station. A State primary school, near Balmoral and Hawthorne but in Morningside, was opened in 1923. (Balmoral Park and Balmoral Cemetery are also inside Morningside’s western boundary.) Balmoral Shire had its offices in Wynnum Road east of the station and there was a row of shops which included four stores, a butcher, a chemist and a motor garage. Morningside Primary School was opened in 1926 and Iona has welcomed students from this school for many generations.

Catholic families from Morningside have often chosen St Oliver Plunkett as their Primary School.

A little known fact is that in 1900, Morningside (Colmslie), housed a very important facility in the history of Brisbane. The bubonic plague had wreaked havoc throughout Europe in the 14th to 17th centuries and its devastating effects had now arrived in Brisbane in 1900. A plague hospital was hastily built in Morningside. The staff had very little to protect them from the disease and did a wonderful job in difficult conditions. The last plague victim was in 1922.

An American Army Base was located in Morningside during World War Two and a suspected secret submarine base was located on the Brisbane River at Colmslie.

Morningside was also a surprising host to the 1949 Diving Titles of the Australian Swimming Championships. The event had been held in southern states for many years and the Queensland Association had worked extremely hard to secure the Championships. The only problem was that they did not have a pool capable of holding the event. Queensland ingenuity came to the fore and Australia’s best divers competed in the disused Morningside Quarry – renamed Lake Emerson for the event.

"Lake Emerson" as it was coined by the press of the day, was a former Brisbane City Council quarry and was gifted to Morningside State School by the council in 1930. The pool was fed a natural spring and due to the lack of public swimming facilities on the south side of Brisbane became an unofficial public pool. As expected the southerners were not at all impressed and sought a postal vote to shift the championships back to NSW. Surprisingly Brisbane won the vote and Brisbane City Council kicked in 150 pounds. Judges would be moored in boats on the water and spectators were dammed to stand around the quarry edge, rain, hail or sunshine.

On Saturday February 28, 1949 the Australian Swimming Titles dive competition commenced and of course.....it rained. No matter, The Sunday Mail reported a crowd in excess of 5000 people bussed, drove, trained and walked to the event despite the wet conditions. There were a number of incidents throughout the day, officials were forced to shout when the public address system failed, a competitor nearly crash dived into a boat of water-born judges, a young boy spectator slid down the steep embankment into the water and a female competitor reported being nibbled by fish. Divers though did prefer this venue to the Valley Pool where the depth was only 8 metres.

"Lake Emerson" was filled in 1950 and is now a dog park.

Morningside’s association with elite sports sees it as the Home of the State Hockey Centre. This venue welcomes over 100,000 spectators a year and is the home of current national champions the Queensland Blades and the Queensland Scorcher.

Take Care and God Bless

RECTOR

Subject Selections – Years 8 and 10

The Year 10 subject selection process has now commenced and I thank all our parents and students who attended Monday evening’s Parent Information Evening. Next week we will commence the process of interviews. Interviews are booked using the online booking system and all families should have received an email with their login details. If you have any trouble booking an interview, please contact my PA, Mrs Penny Byrne, who can assist you. Between now and the interview, please make use of the online resources and feel free to talk to Heads of Department or classroom teachers about senior subjects. I thank our families in advance for their attendance at these interviews and their commitment to the process. The conversations and guidance provided through this forum ensure students are better able to make informed decisions about their senior course of study.

Next Thursday evening (4 August) our Year 8 subject selection evening will be held in IPAC.

The evening commences with subject displays at 6.30pm, followed by the main presentation at 7pm. All Year 8 students are expected to attend, in uniform. Apologies for any confusion caused by the date variation in the calendar. Events had to be changed due to circumstances beyond our control, resulting in a change of date for the Year 8 subject selection evening. I apologise for any inconvenience this may have caused.

OMAAD 2016—Friday 26 August

Oblate Mission Action Day (OMAD) is the major fundraising effort of our college community for the Oblate Missions in the developing world. Last year Iona raised over $80,000. Collection envelopes have been distributed to families and are asked to be returned by Friday 19 August.

Parent Help Required

Parent volunteers play a huge role in the success of the day. Please read the attached “How Can You Help?” letter and contact Mrs Ryan.
COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

Our College assembly on Tuesday this week was a busy event, packed with a number of presentations and performances which again highlight the richness and diversity of our community. Mr Andrew O’Brien, General Manager of Rosies and Mr Bruce Corey, Coordinator of the newly formed Wynnum Manly Branch of Rosies, accepted a cheque from the College following Term 2 fundraising throughout the school.

Our generosity this term is directed in supporting the Oblate missions around the world and OMAD (Oblate Mission Action Day), Friday 26 August was officially launched at the assembly.

Percussion 1, under the direction of Mr Hall gave us a taste of their talents as they prepare for the Australian Percussion Eisteddfod in Melbourne on 20 and 21 August and the assembly welcomed our visitors from Kamakura Gakuen College in Japan.

It was a pleasure to welcome back Old Boys Ashley Callus and Daniel Fox, along with Daniel’s mother Julie, to our assembly.

Ashley spoke with passion about some wonderful memories he has of his school days at Iona and also recalled his swimming highlights since graduating from Iona in 1996. Students and staff were bound as we replayed his gold medal swim in the 2000 Sydney Olympics when he joined Klim, Vidler and Thorpe to win the 4 x 100m relay and became the first team ever to defeat the United States in this event.

Likewise, everyone listened with intent as Daniel was interviewed by his former house tutor, Mr Nalatu and again we watched more gold medal success. Daniel spoke about his preparation for the upcoming Para-Olympics which commence on 7 September in Rio and he tells us to watch out for him in the 200m Freestyle Final. We wish him well in the weeks leading up to the Games.

200TH ANNIVERSARY MASS

Another reminder to our families supporting Fr Michael’s invitation to the mass celebrating the 200th year anniversary of the foundation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate at St Stephen’s Cathedral at 7pm on Monday 8 August. Don’t forget to book your seat on the bus if you require bus transport, departing and returning to Iona.

YEAR 5 GRANDPARENTS’ DAY

This week an invitation has been extended to all grandparents of our Year 5 students for our special event on Friday 19 August. Grandparents are welcome to arrive at IPAC by 9.15am for a liturgy and concert which commences at 9.30am. Following morning tea and a short tour, the grandparents ‘will be let out’ at 11.30am.

We look forward to welcoming and celebrating with these very special people and ask families to reply by no later than Wednesday 10 August to begleyg@iona.qld.edu.au, as per the email.

I know the youngest students of the school are already excited about sharing their Iona stories with their grandparents.

Please don’t hesitate to contact me at the College for further enquires.

RESOURCE CENTRE NEWS

VISITING AUTHOR—BRIAN FALKNER
On Monday the Years 5 and 6 boys were kept entertained and enthralled by international award-winning author Brian Falkner. Brian’s motivating presentation encouraged the boys to always have a passion for reading and also provided some inspiration for budding young authors – to always think “What if...?”, to be prepared to research and to write about things that stir people’s emotions. He also amazed the boys with his ability to say Hello in every language! If any families are still interested in buying Brian’s books, the link here will lead to an on-line order form. When completed, you are able to pay securely on-line and Brian will deliver the signed books to school for distribution. The link to the form will be available until next Monday August 1.

“I really enjoyed the Brian Falkner visit. He was absolutely hilarious and downright FUNNY. I wish he could visit our school every day. I will have to think of more languages.” Liam Jenkins, 6F

“I learnt from Brian Falkner that something simple, like drinking a Coke, can create a funny and interesting story.” Oliver McFarlane, 6T

“I am going to tell you a story about the time I had with Brian Falkner. He was very funny. I loved the way he told his stories from his past. The story of those irresponsible boys throwing stones and concrete at the wasps’ nest and that poor little girl. It was not a good choice to make.”

Benjamin Clark, 5A

“I liked the way Mr Falkner told us stories of his past. The ways of teaching yourself to make a book or a story, for example, when he told the story of when there were two kids throwing rocks at the tree stump. It really helped me and gave me good tips for the story I am writing.”

Jackson Biggs, 5A

“I liked how the author shared information about his younger life and introduced books that I had never heard of before.” Samuel Cranny, 5A

SIMON HIGGINS - VISITING AUTHOR READING AND WRITING WORKSHOPS
A reminder for boys from Years 7 -12 that Simon will conduct a writing workshop on Thursday afternoon 4 August from 3.15pm to 4.15pm and he will attend our Bookchat breakfast on Friday morning 5 August from 7.20am to 8.30am. Students have received information about these events and have been given the opportunity to attend if they wish. Please contact Mrs Shaw for more information.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUB ORDER
All on-line orders for Issue 5 must be lodged by this Friday July 29.

PLEASE NOTE
The Library will be closed at 3.15pm on the following Monday afternoons this term due to whole school staff meetings – Monday 3 August (Week 3), Monday 22 August (Week 6).

Mrs Claire Jackson
Teacher Librarian
Mrs Catherine Shaw
Head of Library and Information Services

“I thought that Brian Falkner was very innovative and funny which is why I had a great time listening to his stories.” Luka Despot, 6F

“Brian was very humorous and he was very inspirational. I enjoyed having him at Iona and I think that I would love his books.”

VIDEOS ABOUT JOBS
One way to learn more about the jobs you are interested in is to watch videos about them. The myfuture website has information on over 500 jobs. You will need to ‘Sign up’ (free of charge) to enter the site for the first time. Otherwise ‘Log in’ and, once on the site, click on ‘Occupations’ and search for the jobs you are currently exploring. Most job descriptions on the site include a video. Each video lasts approximately three minutes. After you have viewed a video see if you can answer the following questions:

- Name at least three of the main duties and tasks required in this occupation.
- Would you like to do this job? Why or why not?
- List some things you learnt about this occupation.

PATHWAYS TO MEDICINE AT UQ
There are several pathways to the four-year graduate entry Doctor of Medicine (MD) program at the University of Queensland.

Direct entry for students who have completed a minimum 3-year Bachelor Degree with a minimum GPA of 5.0 in the last 10 years. They must sit for GAMSAT.

Provisional entry for school leavers – Year 12 students can apply through this pathway. The requirements are OP 1 and a UMAT score. Once accepted, they must complete a minimum 3-year Bachelor Degree at UQ before commencing their medical studies. List of recommended Bachelor Degrees.

Alternative Entry Pathways Scheme for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students – For capable students who may not meet the usual MD entry requirements. The Bonus points can be applied to the MD program. They can be derived from the Educational Access Scheme, UQ Link Program and/or the UQ Bonus Rank Scheme. The maximum number of bonus points a student may receive is capped at five.

Rural Background Sub-quota (RBS) - 25% of MD places in each year's intake are given to applicants who come from a rural background.

Bonded Medical Place (BMP) – 28.5% of MD places are BMPs. Students are required to work in a rural area for a period of four years following completion of their professional training as a medical doctor. For entry in 2016, the UMAT cut-off for Non-Bonded places was 187.69 and the UMAT cut-off for Bonded places was 181.67. A successful applicant can be both BMP and RBS.

Most of the above information can also be accessed from the UQ Health blog.

SEARCH FOR AUSTRALIAN TERTIARY COURSES
The Hot Courses website has a number of search functions to help you find Australian tertiary institutions, courses and scholarships.

JOB PROSPECTS
There are a number of resources you can use to research the employment prospects of jobs you are interested in. These include:

The Job Outlook website provides information from the Australian Bureau of Statistics about job prospects. The information is based on trends in the employment market. Just go onto the website and search for the occupation you are interested in by the name of the occupation or alphabetically.

Labour Market Information Portal presents employment information at national and regional levels. Two areas of interest for students are ‘Labour force region’ (learn about employment in your region) and ‘Employment projections’ (by industry, occupation, skill level and region for the next five years).

Department of Employment gives current information about skill shortages in the Australian labour market, including skill shortages by occupation. This could be helpful information when making career decisions, but should not be the only criteria used.

The Australian Jobs 2016 can be downloaded via the link here. It will take about a minute to open. It gives an overview of the current labour market, highlighting major changes that have occurred in industries and jobs. The information is based mostly on Australian Bureau of Statistics data. The booklet includes a ‘Jobs in the Future’ section and links to other useful resources.

‘Grad Jobs and Dollars’ on the Graduate Careers Australia website provides information about the characteristics of graduates in specific occupations, their employment outcomes and their earnings.

It is important to remember that no graduate is guaranteed a job. It is recommended that students start their job search (do work experience or an internship, develop a network of contacts, gain part-time or holiday work in the industry of interest, etc.) during their course (whether it is at university, TAFE or a private college) not after they receive their qualification. Most institutions have Career and Employment Services that can help students with this process.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENGINEERS
Engineering specialists in materials, biochemicals, nanotech and robotics will become critically important to industries by 2020, claims new report. The report, titled ‘The Future of Jobs’, looked at how the 4th Industrial Revolution would disrupt business and labour markets over the next five years. The 4th Industrial Revolution will see the coming together of multiple fields, including artificial intelligence and machine learning, robotics, nanotechnology, 3D printing and genetics and biotechnology. 2016 Inter-House Theatresports – Monday 15 August 6pm in IPAC

What is Theatresports?

Theatresports is improvised theatre entertainment played as a spectator sport. It is the union of theatre and sport through competitive competition. Teams of players invent scenes while following particular sets of rules. They are judged on their ability to follow the rules, deliver cohesive storylines and entertain the audience. At Iona, Theatresports is part of the Inter-house competition and points contribute to the Oblate Cup Competition.

Why do we do Theatresports?

Involvement in Theatresports allows young people to gain invaluable skills, such as; lateral thinking, team leadership, creative problem solving and collaboration. It builds language and vocabulary skills, advances verbal and non-verbal communication and fosters a sense of respect for other people’s ideas. Theatresports encourages trust and responsible risk taking. But most importantly, it offers students a chance to laugh at themselves and with each other.

PLAY YOUR ROLE 2016

The focus of Iona sport over the next two weeks will be cross country. Our team competes at St Laurence’s fields at Runcorn on Thursday 28 July, attends their annual dinner on Thursday 4 August and finally competes at the AIC Championship at Limestone Park, Ipswich on Saturday 6 August. Cross country is traditionally a strength of Iona sport, typified by securing the 2015 AIC Aggregate Championships. The team will need to work hard in their final preparations as opposing Colleges appear to have trained well. Our Years 5 / 6 basketball teams played their first round of basketball against Padua with the Year 5 teams impressive. This Saturday sees a full basketball and tennis trial against St Patrick’s on the home schedule. The trial provides the opportunity for the players to secure positions in teams. CROSS COUNTRY

On Saturday the Iona Cross country squad ran at Limestone Park, Ipswich in some testing conditions as part of our preparation for the AIC championships on August 6. It was hot, dry and windy but the runners are to be congratulated on the gutsy effort they showed under these conditions. Let’s hope it cools down a little.

The final trial meet is on Thursday evening at SLC Runcorn. We wish the team well in the final preparations to defend our AIC title.

RUGBY / FOOTBALL VS SCOTS COLLEGE, SYDNEY

On Friday 22 July, Iona College hosted Scot’s College from Sydney in Football and Rugby. A combined Years 6/7 Rugby team battled hard and came away with a 21-14 win, while a Football team made of Year 5, 6 and 7 students were very un lucky to lose 3-2. The staff from Scot’s were full of praise for the professionalism of our staff, the quality of our facilities and the character of our boys. A massive thank you to all of the staff that assisted in the organisation of the day and the Year 5 and 6 students who created such a special atmosphere on the sidelines.

YEARS 5 AND 6 ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

It’s that time of year, the Years 5 and 6 Athletics Carnival is nearly upon us. Monday 1 August will be the culmination of three weeks of events to help us decide which house will walk away as Track and Field Champions for 2016. Parents are more than welcome to come down on the day to watch as students take part in a range of events and compete to earn points for their house. Gerard have jumped out to an early lead with several other houses only a small margin behind. Good luck to all houses. The rugby canteen will be open on Monday for this carnival. Drinks, coffee, sausage sizzle and lollies will be available.
