Dear Iona Community,

This week sees some of the events that signify that we are coming towards the end of another year with the Year 12 Valedictory Dinner and also the Requiem Mass for Deceased Old Boys. Both of these very significant events reveal much about our core identity and value.

YEAR 12 VALEDICTORY MASS AND DINNER
The Year 12 Valedictory Mass and Dinner provides an opportunity to give thanks for the many blessings over the years here at Iona. It is an opportunity to also recognise the tremendous contribution that families have made to our Iona College community and to their sons. On behalf of the Oblates, I give thanks for the partnership we have with the parents and staff of the College. This relationship is one of the cornerstones of our community.

REQUIEM MASS FOR DECEASED OLD BOYS
Each year in November, very special members of our Iona community gather to celebrate the lives of our deceased Old Boys. While we pray every day for our Old Boys, this Mass every year is dedicated to their family and friends who gather in solidarity and support of each other. The Mass is held on Saturday 5 November at 5.00pm in the College Chapel and of course everyone is welcome. If you are unable to attend, please spare a prayer for these special Ionian families.

NOVEMBER PRAYERS FOR ALL WHO HAVE DIED
November is traditionally the month where Catholics pray for those who have died. In a very real way, we believe that we are connected with the people who have died and we continue to pray for them. Catholics believe that life is changed, but not ended. In other words, we believe that death is a comma, and not a full stop. Catholics believe that Jesus’ death and resurrection paved the way for our own resurrection. In Jesus, death was defeated and eternal life offered to all. Please be assured that at each Mass we will offer prayers for all of your family and friends as well as those who have no one to pray for them. If you have anyone special that you would like us to pray for, please add your loved ones names here. by 12.00pm on Friday 4 November, and we will ensure that they are personally remembered in prayer. Mass is celebrated each morning at 8.00am and every member of the Iona community is always welcome.

AVIATION AND AEROSPACE NOMINATIONS
The subject of Aviation and Aerospace holds a significant place within the College with approximately 120 students choosing it as an elective over Years 9-12. In 2016, a number of our students have been nominated for the 2016 Aerospace Gateway Schools Awards. I am very happy to congratulate the following boys and staff on their nomination and wish them every blessing for the finals:

- Lachlan Haynes - Year 10 GE Aviation Aerospace Award
- Nicholas Vardanega - Year 11 Aerospace Studies Award
- Sean Adely-McCaul - Year 12 Spirit of Boeing Award
- Matthew Riddle - Flightscope Aviation Pilot Scholarship Award
- Chris Howarth - Teacher Award

WATER POLO AND MUSIC CONCERT
These two events are not often put together in the same title, however, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, these both occurred at Iona. The sport of water polo is brutal, skilful and demanding and I was impressed with the boys’ application and enthusiasm. While the music concert was not quite as brutal, it was nonetheless incredibly skilful and clearly demanding. Along with many families, we witnessed strings, percussion ensembles, guitar ensembles and concert bands. I was so pleased for all of the students and I sincerely thank the parents and staff who make it possible.

Take Care and God Bless

FR MICHAEL TWIGG O.M.I. RECTOR
REMEMBERING OUR DEARLY DEPARTED

At this point in history, ‘mortality’ is still a significant dimension of human experience.

We remember dearly our departed relatives and friends, and occasionally we wonder at the generations of people who have lived their lives before us and have passed on.

In our Christian tradition, we believe that the body is an earthly presentation of individuals and that the ‘essence’ of people (the soul) lives on after death. For people who are oriented towards goodness and the love of God, eternal rest is possible (most likely) and we pray respectfully for this eventuality. Resting peacefully in the warmth of God’s love is probably the most wonderful wish for someone close who has departed this life.

The Catholic Church sees humanity (believers) as a large ‘community’, for we are all human and we are united in Christ. Therefore, we on earth, those who have gone before us, and the saints in heaven, are all part of the one Body of Christ. Our faith in God unites us on this magnificent level!

November is the month when we remember and pray especially for the dead. Indeed, the Church teaches that, “it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead”. In fact, this is an ancient practice dating back to early Jewish times (see the Second Book of Maccabees).

Rightly and respectfully, we therefore celebrate the important occasions of The Solemnity of All Saints (November 1) and The Commemoration of All Souls (November 2).

Also at Iona, we compile an annual Book of Remembrance, which is a heartfelt collection of names of departed family members and friends for whom we pray especially during November. The community is invited to contribute names for this beautiful book here. Please ensure that names are contributed to the list by 12.00pm on Friday 4 November.

We also celebrate an annual Mass of Remembrance for deceased Old Boys (this year on 5 November at 5.00pm in the College Chapel). All are welcome.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
Amen

Dean of Faith and Mission

LEARNING AND TEACHING

WORLD TEACHERS’ DAY

Last Friday we celebrated World Teachers’ Day, which gave us an opportunity to acknowledge our teachers and say thanks for educating and inspiring our students and for the significant contributions they make in our classrooms and communities.

Thank you to our senior students who prepared a celebratory breakfast for our staff under the watchful guidance of Mr Cornish, and to the P&F who organised for every staff member to indulge in a cupcake, which were lovingly baked by our very own student receptionist, Ms Mugridge.

Mrs Deanne Johnston
Dean of Learning and Teaching

Congratulations to our ensembles who performed this week in Music Concert 5. It was a great night and enjoyed by many. We now look forward to our Music Concert 6 this Sunday from 6.30pm in IPAC. This concert is our farewell concert for our Year 12 music students. It is an opportunity to farewell and acknowledge their commitment and contribution to Iona Music over many years. We would like to especially acknowledge Music Captain Jayden Hocking and Music Vice Captain Matthew Geaney (2015, 2016), Michael Allen (2014, 2016), Michael Sullivan (2015) and Dimitri Politis (2016). YEAR 9 CLAY ANIMATION WORKSHOP WITH BASIL GRUMBLE

As part of their Claymation unit in Visual Art this term, Year 9 art students had the opportunity to work with Brisbane-based Clay Animation specialist “Basil Grumble” during half day workshops in Week 4.

During the workshop, students were lead by animation and clay sculpture specialist Grant and narrative storytelling specialist Fiona to problem solve and create their own clay animation figure and develop their animation story.

The students practised making short animations using Stop Motion Pro and investigating techniques towards creating their own short stop motion film as part of their art making this term.

We are looking forward to displaying the finished products in the art gallery at the end of the term.

Head of Department—Visual Art

AEROSPACE STUDIES

FINISHING ON A REAL HIGH – AVIATION NEWS AT IONA

Our Year 12 Aerospace Studies students recently completed their visit to the Boeing and Virgin Australia Flight Training Centre. The students had the opportunity to “fly” the Embraer E-Jet 190 Level D flight simulator under both normal and adverse conditions on a short flight from the Gold Coast to Brisbane. Truly a great and challenging experience and we thank Captains Stuart Haynes, Don Gareide and Peter Uscinski and, of course, to Virgin Australia, for this wonderful opportunity.

Four of our aviation students have been named as finalists at this year’s 2016 Aerospace Education Awards. Congratulations to Sean Adey-McCauley (Year 12), Nicholas Vardanega (Year 11), Matthew Riddle (Year 11) and Lachlan Haynes (Year 10) and we wish you all every success at this year’s finals, to be hosted at Parliament House on 24 November. The quality of the application required for these most prestigious awards is extremely high, so it is wonderful that four of our young men have been named as finalists.

We have also received the news that Angus Slattery (2014) has been named as the Griffith Aviation Student Chief Pilot for the 2017 cohort at Griffith University, where Angus (Gus) has been studying his Bachelor of Aviation since he graduated from Iona two years ago. Well done, Gus and we wish you every success throughout next year.

Mr Chris Howarth
Senior Aerospace Studies Teacher

UPDATES FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND (UQ)

Getting to the core of uni life – This UQ Health blog will be of interest to students considering a course/career in health. The following are just some of the topics on the blog:

- Six things you may not know about accredited exercise physiologists
- A day in the life of an occupational therapy student.
- What is clinical exercise physiology all about?
- Life after uni as a speech pathologist.

You can sign up on the Health Blog to receive updates about student experiences, opportunities, events and career information.

The Science Experience - Applications are open for the 2017 Science Experience at St Lucia campus from 18–20 January 2017. Students in Years 9 and 10 in 2016 who have a passion for science are invited to apply for this event. Applications are due by 5 December 2016.

Changing the UQ image – UQ has produced a flyer, UQ Myths busted, which ‘busts’ common beliefs about UQ e.g. that UQ is theory and research driven, it provides little support for students, it is difficult to get to and that its graduates are less job ready.

B Exercise and Nutrition Sciences – As of Semester One 2018, the prerequisites for this course will be Year 12 English, Mathematics A, B or C, plus one of Biology, Chemistry or Physics.

Concurrent diplomas – You want to get into the B Engineering (or B Science or any other degree at UQ) but you also want to continue studying Japanese (or another language, or music or world issues). If you can identify with this dilemma, read about the concurrent diplomas offered at UQ. These diplomas (in Global Issues, Languages and Music Performance) can be studied alongside your degree studies. You can apply for the Music Performance and Languages diplomas directly to UQ (not QTAC) once you have received your offer of a place in a bachelor degree. The D Global Issues is available once you have completed your first year of undergraduate study.

JOB HUNTING MYTHS BUSTED

Dr Jim Bright and his post-graduate students set out to test job hunting myths. The following is a selection of their findings.

Myth: Use coloured paper or text to make your resume stand out
- Don’t use colour as a gimmick.

Myth: The interview is more important than the resume - Resumes rated just as strongly as interviews in predicting who would be short-listed. Both are important, but the resume is the only chance the applicant has to completely control what is presented.

Myth: Setting career goals and sticking to them is the best way of having a successful career - Being flexible, open to opportunity, persistent and optimistic are probably more important qualities. Goals can be useful, but mostly in the short-term.

Myth: An online vocational interests test will reveal what my ideal career should be - Research shows that interests account for less than 4% of influences on career choice. Personal circumstances, ability, attitude, serendipity and many other factors also need to be considered.

Myth: There is one ideal occupation for me - Unlikely. This assumes you will never change, never have new skills and interests. It also assumes occupations will never change. It would be a bit sad if your ideal career was typewriter repairer!

SONOGRAPHY AT CUQ UNIVERSITY (CQU)

Medical Sonography is a diagnostic medical procedure that uses high frequency sound waves (ultrasound) to produce visual images of organs, tissues, or blood flow inside the body. This field of work is in demand nationally. CQU offers a four-year B Medical Sonography/Graduate Diploma of Medical Sonography which leads to accreditation with the Australasian Sonographer Accreditation Registry. In Queensland the course is offered at the CQU Brisbane and Mackay campuses. During the course, students study anatomy, physiology, health science and sonographic skills and undertake extensive clinical placements. You apply for this course through QTAC. More information about the course is available on the CQU website.

VET STUDENT LOANS TO REPLACE VET FEE-HELP

Contingent on the passing of legislation, from 1 January 2017, VET Student Loans will replace the current VET FEE-HELP scheme, to give eligible students access to higher level VET qualifications (e.g. Diploma, Advanced Diploma). To be eligible for a loan, students must meet certain criteria, including being assessed as academically suited to undertake the course. The loans will be capped at $5,000, $10,000 and $15,000, depending on the course. Courses must also meet eligibility criteria. A list of eligible courses has been developed. Course providers must apply for approval to participate in the VET Student Loans program. Read about the new loans from the ‘A VET Student Loans – Information for Students’ handout.
