No. 13

Dear Iona Community,

Last week saw the first lunchtime music concert underneath the new shade coverings at the amphitheatre. An enthusiastic crowd welcomed Nick Koschel (class of 2012) and Nathan Melvin-Tong from Year 12 who performed a number of musical pieces. We hope that this precinct will welcome many outside artists, as well as providing an appropriate place for our current students to perform.

HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY

On behalf of the Oblate community, I would like to wish all mothers and women who bring life into the world a very happy day on Sunday. Our families, College and community are greatly enriched by women who care.

TERM TWO SPORTS BEGIN

After two trial rounds, our Chess, Rugby and Football squads all commenced the season on Friday and Saturday at various venues across Brisbane with the majority at either Iona or St Pat's Shorncliffe. We were blessed with beautiful weather and many people enjoyed the new spectator facilities that have emerged over the past few months.

We unveiled the new St Eugene's Park as well as promoted our Football teams to be known as Iona United for the football season. Both the Football and Rugby grounds enjoyed greater access to cover as well as further references to our Black and White heritage around the grounds. I was particularly pleased with the endeavour, sportsmanship and perseverance of all players from Iona and St Pat's. We value highly our relationships in the AIC and encourage every member of the Iona community to treasure it also.

AN ACT OF INCREDIBLE IMPORTANCE

During one of the senior matches on Saturday, a St Patrick's player suffered a serious neck and back injury and was in considerable distress. Thanks to the quick and calming actions of John Wilkins (Year 11), the young player was held still and told not to move. John spoke with compassion and authority to the injured player. The medical advice from hospitals and medical staff in attendance were that John's actions had prevented the injury from being even more serious and life altering. John's actions represent the very best of everything that we stand for as a College. The week before, Benjamin Avenia (Year 10) assisted a St Lawrence's student with a severe laceration. I am incredibly proud of all of our boys who express such compassion, leadership and service.

AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATION IN LASER SAILING

The College is incredibly proud of Nathaniel Dutton in Year 11 on his recent selection in the Australian Team for the World Championships in Dublin. Nathaniel started sailing with Iona in 2013 and since then has gone on to be selected for the Queensland Sailing Team and will now sail under the Australian banner. Nathaniel's dream has emerged from his involvement with Iona Sailing and we are extremely proud of his efforts. We have also received the wonderful news that our Iona Sailing Team has been accepted into the Australian Championships in South Australia. The sailing community of Iona enrich our community greatly.

LABOUR DAY – MAY 1

This week we celebrated our second Monday public holiday in a row with Labour Day (formerly known as Eight Hours Day). It recognises the valuable contribution that Unions have made to the working conditions enjoyed in our country. Everyone benefits when the relationship between employer and employees respect the rights of all. At various different times and struggles each group has had difficulty with the other, but this day celebrates the great dignity of work and of those who helped bring about fair, just and sustainable wages. I did spare a thought and prayer for those whose jobs in our society were needed at work on that day, particularly our nurses, doctors, police, ambulance and fire services.

PARENT/TEACHER INTERVIEWS

Thanks to everyone who supported the Parent/Teacher Interview process. These conversations can be extremely valuable in helping ensure that every learning opportunity can be accessed. We are a big school with many different members, however the relationship between staff and students is crucial for the academic, social and spiritual development of our boys. I really hope that the conversations went well for all concerned.

FOOTLOOSE 2016

I thank the very many people who have purchased tickets and I believe that only a very few remain. The cast, music team and crew have worked so hard and I am very pleased with their talent and dedication. If you haven't purchased tickets, I encourage you to do so very quickly. I expect it to sell out within the next few days.

INTRODUCING TINGALPA – 4173

The name 'Tingalpa' comes from the Aboriginal words 'Tinggal' meaning fat and 'Pa' meaning the place of: the place of fat (plenty). For the Aboriginal peoples of the area it was a plentiful place with much food around the many freshwater billabongs and the creek. Tingalpa was a site for Bora Rings where many ceremonies took place for the region.

Tingalpa is located approximately 10km from the Brisbane CBD and has had a long and continuous history. Modern residences and shopping centres occupy the land that once grazed dairy cattle, grew sugar-cane and supplied clay for brick making. Modern transport travels the route used by coaches to Cleveland. A modern hotel stands where the old Royal Mail Hotel stood, probably the oldest hotel in the district.

Tingalpa was settled in the 1860s with a post office opened in 1867, Christ Church and cemetery opened in 1868, Royal Hotel in 1870 and Tingalpa State School in 1873.

Tingalpa's historic Christ Church and Burial Grounds are beautiful highlights of this suburb and are testament to the local determination to keep this part of the history of the region alive. They are definitely worth a visit at 1343 Wynnum Road, Tingalpa.

Tingalpa is also home to Kianawah Park, Wynnum Manly Cricket Club, a 1919 war memorial, Meadowlands Park, Minnippi Parkland and Villanova College's Villa Park, where many intense and close fought sporting challenges have been met with our nearest AIC neighbours.

It is also the home to Holy Family Catholic Church, which is part of St Oliver Plunkett Parish, Cannon Hill.

Two very beautiful parks are located in Tingalpa (Minnippi and Meadowlands) and within these parks lies what was formerly known as Porter's Paddock or Field. This is home to the Tingalpa model Aero Club and points to a very interesting and sad part of this suburb's history. One of the Porter family (Stan) had enjoyed a joy flight with Sir Charles Kingsford Smith and developed a life-long love of flying. He built an air strip and provided flight services for people in the region. Tragically Stan and his son were killed in a plane accident in 1954 in Doboy Creek with one son Des Porter (aged 11) surviving. Years later Des purchased and restored one of his father's old planes (the same model involved in the accident) and offered joy flights in the restored plane. In a further tragedy Des Porter, his wife and four other passengers would also be killed in 2012 in the same model of aircraft that his father and brother were killed in all of those years ago (Hawker de Havilland DH84 Dragon). In remembering this tragedy we keep all families involved in our prayers, but also give thanks to the work of the Porter Family in their promotion of the love of flying. This Park is also home to the Queensland Miniature Race Car Club.

Iona College has had a consistent flow of students from Tingalpa, coming from both St Oliver Plunkett's Primary School and Tingalpa State Schools. Tingalpa has a rich history and a hope-filled future. We are glad that Tingalpa families continue to be a part of our Iona community.

Take Care and God Bless

LEARNING AND TEACHING

NAPLAN TESTS

Next week our students in Years 5, 7 and 9 will sit the NAPLAN tests. All parents of these year levels were sent an email last week outlining the testing schedule and the equipment students require.

There can be a great deal of stress around NAPLAN, from both students and parents. However, it is important that we all remember that NAPLAN is only one small part of our assessment processes and the tests should not be considered as the sole measure of a child's ability. NAPLAN is a point in time test and there are many things that can affect an individual's performance on the day. There are also many and varied aspects of students' lives that NAPLAN doesn't reflect including creativity, social skills, general knowledge, higher order thinking and emotional intelligence. The tests need to be put into perspective and we will view their results in line with our holistic knowledge of the student.

If you are a parent of a student in Years 5, 7 or 9, please reassure your sons not to stress. They shouldn't view or approach NAPLAN tests any differently than all the other learning activities we do in class. Our expectation is that they come prepared and simply try their best. The results, whatever they may be, will provide us with worthwhile information about their progress and about areas we need to target. When we receive the data, we will use it in conjunction with the plethora of other data we have to inform our teaching and learning programs.

At school, we will be treating NAPLAN as just another day and we ask parents to also take this approach. The best thing parents can do is to ensure the boys have a good dinner, an early night and a nutritious breakfast.

NAPLAN EQUATING STUDY

Thanks to Mr Vickers and our students in 5V for their cooperation in sitting a NAPLAN equating study on Thursday. The College received notification on Tuesday that ACARA required one of our Year 5 classes to sit two small scale tests. We have been advised that the purpose of the equating study is to help ACARA develop future NAPLAN papers by determining the quality of potential test items. The writing tasks the boys completed on Thursday will have no bearing on individual student's performances on NAPLAN next week or our school's data.

PARENT TEACHER INTERVIEWS

Thank you to all families who were able to attend our parent teacher interviews over the last two weeks. Our next scheduled interview day will be in Term 3, however, parents are welcome to contact teachers at any time of the year if they would like to schedule additional interviews.

FAITH AND MISSION

MOTHERS' DAY

Mothers' Day can be traced back to ancient pagan practices, but it has gone through a lot of changes and names to get to what we know today. The history of Mothers' Day can be traced back to celebrations of ancient Greece in honour of Rhea, the mother of the gods. Interestingly, during the 1600s, the early Christians in England celebrated a day to honour Mary, the mother of Christ. By a religious order, the holiday was later expanded to include all mothers.

The Old and New Testament scriptures encourage the honouring of mothers and fathers (see Deuteronomy 5:16 and Ephesians 6:2).

Traditional ways to celebrate Mothers' Day are to give cards, gifts, flowers, or chocolates and to take mothers out for something special in appreciation for the people they are, for their selfless generosity and for the love they continue to share.

A Prayer for Mothers

We thank you, O Lord, for the gift of Mothers.
May those blessed with children be granted the gifts of courage,
perseverance and good health.
May they face each new day with faith and hope in your abiding love.
May family members appreciate their selfless generosity
and their unreserved love.
May all families find in a mother's love
the comfort and peace that reflect the goodness of God.
Amen.

Best wishes,

Mr Wayne Wilden
Dean of Faith and Mission

COMMUNITY NEWS

PARENT INVOLVEMENT AND ENGAGEMENT IN SCHOOLS

Last weekend I was joined by current parent and P & F member, Mrs Lara Beckley at the Queensland Catholic Schools Parents Conference in Rockhampton. The focus of the conference was on parent engagement in schools and how student learning outcomes are enhanced by the building of a collaborative parent/school approach to the learning and well-being of students.

Dr Debbie Pushor from the Department of Curriculum Studies, University of Saskatchewan, Canada was a most engaging keynote speaker and certainly provoked thought to how parent engagement is effectively being used at Iona.

Lara and I look forward to discussing further what we learnt at the conference at the Iona P & F meeting this Monday 9 May commencing at 7pm. All are welcome to attend.

IONA COLLEGE SPORTS INFORMATION

PLAY YOUR ROLE 2016

This weekend sees the annual winter fixtures against St Laurences - an absorbing clash between two large AIC Colleges. The numerous games will be competitive and all teams will need to perform under pressure. Those teams who were successful last weekend will need to maintain their efforts and those searching for their initial win of the year will need to work together. Please be mindful of:-

- ◆ Reading the draw carefully - There are numerous games on different fields.
- ◆ Teams who complete games must shake hands with opponents and then tunnel the next Iona team onto the field.
- ◆ Souths United FC in Nathan Rd, Runcorn IS NOT available for parking when visiting St Laurences fields. Please do not use these parking areas.
- ◆ Help is always needed in rugby and football canteens run by the sport supporters. Funds raised are then utilized for assisting capital projects associated with sport.
