AIC Week 6

Sport #iRESPECT 2017

The Villanova round was played in good spirit with all games keenly contested. The 1st XI led the way, remaining undefeated as a result of a solid 3 – 1 win. The team faces 2 difficult games against St Patrick's and St Laurence's in coming weeks but the boys have the ability to get the job done.

The St Patrick's round is always a physical encounter that can be overcome by team work and attitude. All teams need to start well, maintain pressure through defense and wisely use possession.

Our Primary AFL team continues its quest for State Knockout success with a game against Ashgrove State School at Zillmere on Wednesday afternoon. These games are now of a high standard and our team needs to play well and enjoy the moment.
