Sport #iRESPECT 2017

Last week was highlighted by the opening of the Iona Tennis Centre, a wonderful afternoon for our community. The opening fixture between Old Boy Daniel Groundwater and our current number 1 player, Lathan Treacy was a fitting beginning to all the enjoyable tennis that lies ahead. The subsequent win by our 1st Tennis team over Marist College Ashgrove last Saturday has set the standard for Iona tennis to progress to new levels.

All games against Ashgrove were hard fought, with our younger teams performing well in tight situations. Our cross country team continued its preparation and our Years 7 – 9 AFL team ended its season with a loss to Helensvale State High.

This week sees cross country gather momentum for next week's AIC Championship, Qld Schools Cup for volleyball, Qld Intercollegiate golf, and fixtures in basketball / tennis against Padua College. It is high standard sport abundant in exciting and demanding physicality. All the best to everyone involved.
