iSPORT 1958 – 2019: Play Your Role

This week sees the AIC winter season of chess, football and rugby begin as well as cross country meets scheduled to prepare our runners for the coming championships. This weekend is the "Appreciation Round" when Padua and Iona College players will gather together at the end of each game for the purpose of providing thanks to all who are involved in organising and supporting our teams. It is a simple but meaningful gathering.

Last weekend's trial was difficult to get moving due to the vacation and the short week. The efforts of our A teams was encouraging but we will need to work on the depth of our College performance as the season progresses. It will be dependent on organisation and players working hard at training.

All involved both on and off the field are reminded to "play their role" so that our sport is successful and enjoyable. Part of that is ensuring that all visitors are welcomed this weekend.
