ISPORT 1958 – 2018: Standards

Despite being scheduled late in the year, the Queensland Schools 10 – 12 Years Swimming Relay Carnival is somewhat exciting. Iona College entered 6 teams and all swam with teamwork – the gaining of 2 medals in the 11-12 Years division was special.

AFL, cricket and volleyball trials continued so as to be organised for 2019 – please note the details for Year 5 and Year 7 trials on Monday 21 January next year which will further prepare our teams. Details have been forwarded and are also in the AFL, cricket and volleyball sections of this newsletter.

2019 Term 1 Iona College sport will be busy. (Sailing starts; AFL, volleyball and cricket will focus on AIC involvement; swim training will be in full swing and cross country training will begin; chess trials will get underway as will mountain biking organisation and open rugby and football pre-seasons. Lytton and Composite representative trials are also numerous at the start of the year.

- PLEASE - Follow Twitter
- Read the newsletter
- Listen to and understand organisation

2018 ends with 2 Iona volleyball teams competing in the National Schools Cup in Melbourne and the Open cricket squad competing in the Oblate Cup in Perth.

Ahead of that lies much sport, more than ever before. It will be consuming and competitive with hard work the main pathway for potential success.

As 2019 approaches, the college is again endeavouring to secure cricket managers and coaches. Those willing to assist are requested to contact:
