16 September

The 2020 COVID-19 sporting season again saw disruption last week. Within the current health environment, decisions are made to protect our community. It was an unfortunate conclusion but our teams still “played” throughout the term.

Our 1st XIII rugby league team will compete in the Matt Gillett Cup during the vacation (21 - 23 September) It will be hosted by Mt Maria College and features Brisbane Colleges.

AIC is still examining Term 4 sport. AIC track and field is still going ahead Week 1 of next term, albeit with no spectators. Iona College will also compete in Qld All Schools touch (Week 1) and Qld Schools Cup volleyball (Week 2). Annual fixtures with Wynnum State School (Years 5 and 6) in touch and rugby league are being organised. Our swimming program gets moving for the remainder of the year, as do our 2021 preparations. It all keeps our boys physically involved in a wide range of activities.

Congratulations to all who won individual awards associated with the recent sporting season. Further congratulations to the teams who were in grand finals and thus achieved shared premierships.

Rugby: 3rd XV, 10A, 10B, 10C, 9A, 9B, 8A, 8B, 7A, 7B, 7C, 7D
