3 February

Iona College sport will again be in full swing this week, highlighted by the AIC Ecumenical Service involving all AIC Colleges on Thursday at Iona. Year 12 interhouse swimming will also be held on that day with the Year 7 interhouse swimming being held during sport next week. Iona swim squad hosts Villanova College on Friday afternoon. The weekend sees the first of our Indigenous rounds with most fixtures against St Patrick's College. Round 1 of Fleet racing sailing will be held at RQYS on Sunday.

This week, the College welcomed Toutai Kefu to our coaching ranks. Toutai earned 60 Wallabies caps, 103 caps for the Reds and is the current Tonga national coach. He will work with our 1st XV, be a mentor to our players and assist in developing our overall coaching direction. He will be a wonderful addition to our community.

Last weekend saw much action:

- Swim trials displayed much potential.
- Cricket fixtures were split across the grades against Villanova, a strong College effort.
- Volleyball saw Iona gain an 8 - 4 advantage in fixtures that count for the AIC aggregate.
- Villanova won all three senior AFL fixtures, whereas the Primary boys won three of the four games against St Laurence's.
- The annual Blessing of the Fleet at RQYS connected our sailing community with the wonderful waters of Moreton Bay in a faith context. Boat maintenance, blessing ritual and a team BBQ were enjoyable for all.

Iona won 10 of 17 games (Year 7-Open) and 5 from 10 (Years 5 and 6) last weekend against Villanova. The 1st XI lost 99 to 184. Thank you to Old Boy Damien Mackenzie (1997) for presenting the 1st team with their caps.

Well done to the Year 6 teams who won all 5 games and the Year 7 teams who won 4 from 5. A great start to their Iona journey.

Overall, it was good performance against one of the stronger cricket colleges in the AIC competition.
