

IONA COLLEGE

Complaints Handling Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

St Eugene de Mazenod OMI, through the Oblate charism invited us all to “Learn who we are in the eyes of God”. This invitation hopefully leads to a discovery of a God-given dignity that has great responsibilities and hopes to promote healthy and life-giving relationships.

Consequently, as a Catholic college in the Oblate tradition, we believe that all human beings are created in the image and likeness of God. As a result of that understanding we believe that each of us has a fundamental human dignity. As a school, that human dignity needs to be recognised, modelled and taught through the way we interact with one another. College policies and procedures in part exist to help us ensure that we treat each other with respect and dignity.

2. PURPOSE

Iona College is committed to ensuring members of the Iona community collaborate in a harmonious and equitable working environment where complaints are dealt with sensitively and promptly. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that student, parent, employee or other stakeholder complaints are dealt with in a responsible, efficient, effective, transparent and fair way.

Although the majority of complaints can and should be resolved in an informal way without conducting an investigation, there will be occasional instances where more formal processes should be followed.

3. SCOPE

The policy applies to all complaints made by students, parents, employees, contractors, volunteers or members of the community relating to issues including but not limited to:

- Discrimination, bullying, harassment and other negative behaviours
- The application of Iona’s policies and procedures
- Decisions made by management in relation to a person’s engagement with the College; and
- Terms and conditions of employment

Where there is any inconsistency with the Student Protection Processes and Guidelines, the Student Protection Policy and Guidelines will apply.

Exclusions:

- Complaints relating to Student Protection should be addressed to the Principal or Rector. If the concern relates to the Principal or Rector, then to the Chair of the Iona College Board in line with our Student Protection Processes & Guidelines.
- Student bullying complaints will be addressed in accordance with our College Policy and Rules and Behaviour Management Policy
- Where an appeal or review of a decision or outcome has been undertaken in accordance with another policy or procedure.

Employee complaints related to their employment should be directed to their Line Manager in the first instance, all reasonable attempts should be made to resolve these matters locally. Where there is inconsistency between this policy and the Enterprise Bargaining Agreement and other industrial instruments, the industrial instrument takes precedence.

Complaints Handling Policy

4. DEFINITIONS

Complainant:	the person making the complaint.
Complaint:	an expression of dissatisfaction made to or about the College, our service and/or our staff or the handling of a complaint where the response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected or legally required.
Dispute:	an unresolved complaint which is escalated for external resolution.
Natural Justice:	Applies to any decision that can affect the rights, interests or expectations of individuals in a direct or immediate way and works to ensure that decision making is fair and reasonable.
Procedural fairness:	being given a fair and reasonable opportunity to be heard before a decision is made.
Respondent:	the person that the complaint is about.

5. POLICY STATEMENT

Iona College ("the College") is committed to ensuring that student, parent and employee complaints are dealt with in a responsive, efficient, effective, sensitive and fair way. The College will seek to resolve issues quickly and use principles of conflict resolution to ensure that complaints are resolved with the least amount of stress for those involved.

The College views complaints as part of an important feedback and accountability process. Iona College acknowledges the right of students, parents and employees to complain when dissatisfied with an action, inaction or decision of the College and the College encourages such feedback. The College recognises that time spent on handling complaints can be an investment in better service to students, parents and employees.

Complaints made and the response to them must reflect the ethos of Iona College as a Catholic School in the Oblate tradition. Complaints will be addressed in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness. Procedural fairness will be ensured wherever practicable, including the right of the interested parties to be heard.

6. PROCEDURE

The College encourages informal resolution of concerns and complaints through discussion, negotiation informal facilitation and mediation. This does not prevent a complainant from deciding, at any time to make a formal written complaint to the Rector or Principal. Refer to the Complaints Handling Guidelines for further information.
